

1. Short Answers

1. Describe how Kezia's fear of her father changed.

✓ At first, she feared him and avoided him, but later she felt empathy when he comforted her during a nightmare.

2. Why do you think Kezia saw her father differently at the end?

✓ She realized he loved her and was tired from work, even if he didn't always show it.

2. Vocabulary Exercise

Match the emotion:

1. Glad sense of relief → hearing carriage noise fade

2. Fear → father entering the room

3. Comfort → father rubbing feet against legs

3. Writing Task

Write a diary entry in 150 words describing how you feel about your parents after understanding their struggles.

4. Grammar Exercise

Rewrite the sentence in reported speech:

"Oh no, no," she screamed, hiding under the bedclothes.

✓ She screamed in fear and hid under the bedclothes.