

✓ UNIT 3 – THE LITTLE GIRL

Detailed Explanation in Simple Words

This story is about a girl named Kezia who is scared of her father. He is big, strict, and doesn't speak gently. She feels nervous and hides from him. Even when she tries to be good, she stutters when he asks questions. Her grandmother asks her to talk to him, but she feels uncomfortable.

Later, she sees other fathers playing happily with their children. She wonders why her father doesn't act like that. One day when her mother is away, she feels very lonely and afraid of nightmares. Her father comforts her by holding her and making her feel safe.

After that, Kezia's view of her father changes. She realizes he is tired from work and cares for her, even if he doesn't show it openly.

---

✓ Important Points

1. Children may misunderstand their parents' behavior.
  2. Parents have responsibilities that can make them tired and strict.
  3. Love is not always expressed through words; actions also matter.
  4. Empathy helps in forming better relationships.
-

✓ Solved Questions

Q1. Why was Kezia afraid of her father?

✓ Because he was big, strict, and spoke loudly. She thought he would scold her.

Q2. What did her grandmother do to help her?

✓ She encouraged her to talk to her father and get to know him better.

Q3. How did seeing other fathers change her mind?

✓ She saw that other fathers were playful and caring. She realized her father might be tired and loving inside.

Q4. How did her father comfort her?

✓ He carried her to bed, tucked her in, and asked her to rub her feet against his legs to keep warm.